

Mrs. Beth Bach

Beth was born and raised in Central Pennsylvania. She is a magna cum laude graduate of Indiana University of Pennsylvania with a B.A. degree in Criminology. She was employed as a Juvenile Probation Officer where she handled court ordered home investigations and institutional placements as well as supervising youth on probation.

After her two daughters began school, Beth returned to college to become a teacher. She received a B.S. degree in Elementary Education from Calumet College. Mrs. Bach has taught third grade at St. John for 13 years and loves third graders! She continues to take graduate coursework in elementary education and enjoys learning new things.